

Question	Answers – Ensure each answer contains relevant literature and relates back to the case study.
1a) Using the case study provided, identify an urgent risk area. Ensure your answer details why you have identified this risk area including specific information about the client and current literature. (2 marks)
1b) Identify one nursing / midwifery intervention you would undertake directly with your client to address the risk area noted in question 1a and include a rationale for the intervention. (2 marks for the intervention and 2 marks for the rationale) Ensure the intervention includes how, who and when you would actually carry out the intervention. Your rationale should state why you would carry out the particular intervention. Ensure literature is included. 1a and 1b – 200 words in total
2a) Using the case study provided, identify a mental health concern. Ensure your answer details why you have identified this concern including specific information about the client and current literature. (2 marks)
2b) Identify one nursing / midwifery intervention you would undertake directly with your client to address the mental health concern noted in question 2a and include a rationale for the intervention. (2 marks for the intervention and 2 marks for the rationale) Ensure the interventions includes how, who and when you would actually carry out the intervention. Your rationale should state why you would carry out the particular intervention. Ensure literature is included when you discuss the rationale. 2a and 2b – 200 words in total
3) Using current literature, identify and discuss (2) two legal, ethical or professional issues a nurse / midwife may need to consider when working with the client in the case study (4 marks). Qu 3 – 100 words in total	